

We have exciting news to share...

Denise Gucwa's School of Dance is doubling the space, doubling the classes and doubling the FUN! Beginning September 2010, an additional studio just next door to the current one (where Arts N' Sparks is currently) will provide all kinds of new benefits for current and new dancers:

- Expanded & new class offerings – Modern and Lyrical Dance
- More day/time options – increased flexibility for your schedule
- A greater variety of levels – Intermediate Ballet for Teens
- Autism Movement Therapy® – Therapeutic classes for children with Autism
- Irish Dance through Campbell Academy of Irish Dancing – ages 4+
- Adult dance classes – Tap & Ballet
- Adult fitness classes through T-Line Body Works – have fun getting fit with Zumba, Body Pump and more
- Expanded waiting area
- Study area for teacher assistants
- Dance Attire shop

It is because of you, that we are able to able to provide these new resources for our dancers and families. Thank you for your continued support of the studio and encouraging other families to check us out. Our teachers are thrilled by the expanded opportunities for learning and are ready to share more of their knowledge. We look forward to enjoying another exciting year of dance and growth with you.
